WOMEN AND CHILDREN: BARRACK NO. 1 PTS COMPLEX, MALVIYA NAGAR: NEW DELHI - 110017

Detailed advertisement and Terms of Reference for 4 positions of Capacity Support Officers for Social Service Units (provision of social services to survivors of violence at divisional and sub-divisional level), within Delhi Police Department

The Ministry of Home Affairs (Government of India) and Department of Police, Delhi, have undertaken an initiative of providing social services to survivors of violence, by placing 60 trained social workers located in the Police system at the divisional and sub-divisional levels, with a clear understanding that violence against women & children is a crime and it is the responsibility of the State to prevent and counter the same. These Social Service Units will provide women, children and elderly with the first response in terms of sensitive support that women, children & elderly persons require. They will then be referred to/linked with the appropriate established system as per the nature of violence faced by them. For the purpose of maintaining quality of the service, Delhi would be divided into four regions preferably having an equal division of districts and sub-divisions. To ensure daily monitoring, supervision, co-ordination and capacity support (on-ground support and trainings) of the Social Workers, the 4 Capacity Support Officers (hereafter CSO) would be appointed, 1 per region. SPUWAC H.Q., Delhi Police, hereby issues this advertisement for the 4 positions of Regional Capacity Support Officers to supervise the work of social workers engaged at divisional & sub-divisional level.
